

Aperitif and dinner in the Venice lagoon: exclusive “bragozzo” experience!

The opportunity to sail along canals little known to normal boats will give you the chance to immerse yourself in the unique and enchanting atmosphere of the Venice lagoon.

You will set sail for an unforgettable navigation around St Mark's basin and its islands.

High quality service on board with an open kitchen for a refined and authentic experience.

The captain, Manuel, in addition to being chef and sommelier is part of the last family of “moecanti” in Venice. A true treasure, repository of an ancient tradition that is still so true.

Aperitif and menu

The aperitif is served during navigation:

- Aperol spritz, Campari, Select, Cynar or Prosecco Valdobbiadene brut, and non-alcoholic drinks;
- accompanied by cicchetti with cream of snapper and creamed cod.

Dinner is freshly cooked on board the bragozzo and served anchored in the lagoon:

- starter: sauté of mussels
- first course: linguine with cuttlefish in red;
- main course: fried moeche and lagoon fish;
- to drink: Veneto wines, sparkling and still, soft drinks and unlimited water.

On the way back, on request

- cocktail, mojito or gin and tonic.

Exclusive experience for up to 12 people

The bragozzo can accommodate a maximum of 12 participants.

This cruise between Venice and its lagoon, with an aperitif and dinner, is an authentic and exclusive experience.

It is ideal both for small groups of friends who want to share fun and relaxing moments and for hosting corporate team building events.
